7. Executive Director Update

- a) John McCarty reported that the ACWWA Board has chosen to cease negotiations regarding the transfer of the MS4 Permit to SEMSWA. Mr. McCarty, Mr. Krisor, Mr. Atkin, and Mr. Kron have met regarding options for an alternative working relationship. An MOU, transfer of responsibilities, system development fees, reimbursement agreements, and other items will be discussed by ACWWA committees and then between the partners.

Director Weidmann asked Mr. Krisor for a legal opinion regarding SEMSWA's obligation to accept liabilities from ACWWA if ACWWA does not transfer the permit to SEMSWA. Mr. Krisor will prepare an opinion for the SEMSWA Board, which will be forwarded to the Board.

- b) Mr. McCarty will be attending the APWA Exposition in mid-September. He has been asked to participate in a "stormwater summit panel" to discuss issues related to multi-governmental stormwater authorities.
- c) The November and December board meetings have been rescheduled to the third Wednesday of the month. The board meeting schedule for the remainder of the year is listed in Item 13.
